Local Veteran Attends Monument Dedication

Owen Probst

Owen Probst, lifetime Midway resident, was a member of the distinguished 749th Tank Battalion in World War II, which still holds 4 Pentagon records. This amazing unit recently had a monument dedicated to it at Fort Knox, KY, where the Battalion had its last National Reunion function on Sept. 28-30, 2000. Attendance was approximately 180; and as one of his colleagues wrote, "All of us have very fond memories of you, Owen." Mr. Probst served as a cook, and was beloved for his culinary skills as well as his caring and interest in the men. Comment from another tanker, "One of my more vivid recollections of you was your making sure we were well fed on a particularly wet day in Normandy.

Following are some excerpts from their last newsletter describing one of their 4 still held Pentagon records: The 749th Tank Battalion holds what is believed to be an all time record for an armored unit—196 consecutive days in combat. The men of the Battalion traveled more than 2000 miles with their tanks in France and Belgium after landing on Utah Beach on June 2, 1944.

After landing in Normandy with the First Army, this unit spearheaded the attack on La Have du Puits and led the Combat Teams which later liberated Fougères, Laval and Le Mans. Swinging northward early in August, the Tank Battalion then in Patton's Third Army, participated in closing the Falaise gap. The Battalion advanced to Mantes-Gassicourt on Aug. 20, 1944, and was the first tank unit to cross the Seine. Continuing north, again as part of Patton's Third Army, the Battalion was among the first tank units to reach Belgium.

In the early part of September 1944 the 749th Tank Battalion was given the mission of protecting the right flank of Patton's Third Army—and advanced to the vicinity of Joinville...The first reorganization of the Battalion came on Jan. 14, 1945, after 196 days of continuous combat.

...These combat wise tankers were instrumental in capturing scores of towns in Germany... They reached Limbach on April 24, 1945, and remained there until after the cessation of hostilities in Europe.

The other 3 Pentagon records held by the 749th are: Total miles covered - 2,200; Units served with - 17; and Farthest Eastern Tank Advance.

Owen, one of 11 children of the noble John Ulrich and Susanna Gertsch Probst family, served a mission to the Northern States, 1936-1938. He was married to the late Rose Bernards Probst for 50 years, has three daughters, thirteen grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

His 91st birthday, Oct. 13, 2000, was spent in Hawaii, a dream fulfilled to see this island paradise.
